

"The Language of Tribal" with Sooz! From CA and Tribal Reflections

August 21-22 2010

Presented by Tribal Reflections in affiliation with Amira Dance Productions, LLC

Sooz has been making her living as a teacher and performer since the 80's having been on stages all over the United States & Canada. Her bellydance career began as a founding member of the world fusion troupe, Devadasi and later Blue Damsel. She also performed with the innovative fire performance troupe, Atash Maya. She is now a devout student and teacher of American Tribal Style, teacher trained and a proud Sister Studio with FatChance Bellydance, as well as having the distinct pleasure of guest performing with them on several occasions! She is available for workshops, performances and takes pride in not only teaching students the language of ATS but also helping the dancer find their stage persona, their unique voice so that they truly shine!

Salome Nahla and Naxi Ruya began their dance journey at an early age, their combined dance experience range from ballet, tap dance, gymnastics, to Latin dances. Their journey in Classic Middle Eastern Dance took place in 2002 until their paths crossed when they found Tribal Style and Tribal Fusion Belly dance. They founded a fusion group named Sisters of Salome, later to be known as Tribal Reflections. Tribal Reflections have been training and performing Improvisational Tribal Style and Tribal Fusion Belly dance since 2004. They have been teaching Improvisational Tribal Style Belly dance at Amira Dance Productions LLC since the fall of 2007. They are the directors of 'Filles de la Lune' the student ITS troupe while continuing to be Tribal Reflections a Fusion Belly dance Troupe which have impressed audiences locally and at regional events such as Tribal Alchemy, Tribal Fest, 3rd Coast and Elevation.
